

Richard M Spencer
Corporate Bio

Richard has over 33 years experience within Securities and Derivatives and started his career in 1990 as a 17 year old with Natwest Futures at the Royal Exchange in London. He then moved to US commodities firm 'Refco' within the 'International Petroleum Exchange' (IPE) dealing in Brent Crude Oil and Natural Gas before becoming a Broker/Trader at the 'London International Financial Futures Exchange' (LIFFE). There he worked for Companies including 'Barclays de Zoete Wedd' (Barclays Wealth), 'Nordbanken' and 'Credit Agricole' before starting his Personal Proprietary Trading Fund focused on Short Sterling Futures.

In 2003 Richard moved to mainland Europe where he was advising as a Eurodollar Options Analyst for a portfolio of European and Middle Eastern clients whilst trading Brent Crude Oil Futures.

He has consulted internationally on Renewable Energy Projects and developed Financial Packages for the Mining/Commodities sector within Africa and South America, including infrastructure design for Base Metal Excavation Projects. He advises as Partner to 'LIWA Petroleum and Technical Services Est' (www.lptse.com), a Physical Oil Trading Company based in Abu Dhabi and has spoken as an expert in his field at Business Conferences such as the 'Global Alternative Investment Market' in Monaco.

He founded 'Mayfair and Bond' in January 2012 where he remains as an active Trader within the Securities and Derivatives Markets in addition to the trading of Physical Hydrocarbon Commodities.

He received his MBA majoring in International Business and Corporate Finance in London and is presently studying the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law. Richard is also the Author of the 'Invest in Yourself Workbook' and Founder of the 'London School of Trade'.
